

MARRIAGE

Requirements for both parties

- 📄 Birth certificate
- 📄 Declaration of marital status
- 📄 A death certificate, if widowed
- 📄 Divorce certificate/ decree or final judgment, if divorced
- 📄 Address
- 📄 Passport copies
- 📄 Passport copies of the witnesses
- 📄 Fee - USD$ 28.00 Notification of the wedding

Note:

Documents for non-residents should not be older than six (6) months

Original documents need to be translated into the Dutch or English languages, if applicable.

Depending on the country of origin, the above-requested documents may require legalization, and some countries also require an Apostille Stamp. In several countries, the documents must be authenticated first by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of that country and then legalized by the Dutch Consulate.

Marriages on Saba take place at the Court Room or a location of your choice.

You will need a minimum of two and a maximum of four witnesses for marriages performed in the Court Room. At any other location, the amount is six witnesses.

Once all documents have been submitted and payment made, the Civil Registrar begins registering the couple's intention to be married.
